

Croatia stockpiles energy storage equipment

Overview

Croatia is moving forward with its largest grid-scale battery energy storage project thanks to a new investment from the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD), the bank announced. Hrvatska Elektroprivreda (HEP), the state-owned utility of Croatia, has officially launched a tender for a solar-plus-storage project, marking a major step forward in the country's renewable energy expansion. The EBRD is investing up to €16.
