There has been vs. There have been

There has been some rapid progress. This is correct, because "progress" is an uncountable noun (ie. nouns that we can't count, so don't have different plural forms); therefore, it can only take a singular

"Has" vs. "have"

Can anyone tell me where we have to use "has" and where we have to use "have"? I am confused. Can anyone explain me in a simple way?

Has or Have? Which is grammatically correct and why?

Today my friend asked me if you can use "has" instead of "have" here. I'm not sure how to explain the grammar simply. (5)"Since there is no other food on the table, and each of them have small plat
